

PETROLEUM IN SUDAN 2002

1. SUDAN 'SHOULD SHARE OIL WEALTH'

Calling for a "major push" to end Sudan's decades-old civil war, a US special envoy told President George W. Bush the Sudanese government should share oil revenue with the rebels and accept international monitoring of religious freedom as part of a "just peace".

Source: RESISTANCE OILWATCH NETWORK BULLETIN Number 30 – July 2002